

All-Ceramic Bridges

This young girl was congenitally missing two of her front teeth. Although the surrounding teeth appear healthy and implants were considered, there was little bone in the area of the missing teeth, which precluded the placement of implants. The patient chose all-ceramic bridges to replace the missing teeth.

Two all-ceramic bridges were used to replace the congenitally missing teeth. Even though the margins of the bridges were placed above the gum

