

Your Smiles Make Us Smile

March 2009

Welcome $PATIENT_FIRSTNAME$!

♣ ♣ ♣ Spring Forward Into March ♣ ♣ ♣

The month of March brings a host of welcomed events...the beginning of Daylight Savings (March 8th)...St. Patrick's Day (March 17th)...and the official arrival of spring (March 20th)! For many people, spring is a time of fresh starts and new beginnings. If you've been contemplating starting a new season of life with a fresh, new smile, now is the perfect time to schedule an appointment with us for a smile consultation. If you are ready to do something about stained, chipped or missing teeth...loose, ill-fitting dentures or partials...overlapping teeth or noticeable gaps...then now's the time to "spring into action." We'll be happy to discuss your concerns and various treatment options for giving you the smile you've always wanted. Call today to schedule an appointment!

We are happy to announce the arrival of Luke Bolt Powell into the Wood Creek family on February 16th, 2009. Little Luke came into the world at 20½" long and weighing 6 lbs., 6 oz. The proud parents are our hygienist, Kari Powell and husband Kenny. Kari will be returning part-time in April and will be happy to show off pictures. Congratulations and blessings on their precious new bundle of joy!

Did you know that, according to the American Dental Association, an athlete is 60 times more likely to have a tooth injury when not wearing a protective mouth guard? Mouth guards are common in contact sports, such as football or basketball, but at Wood Creek Dental, we see more dental trauma cases from sports like baseball, snow skiing and cheerleading! A mouth guard is designed to help buffer the mouth and teeth and can be custom designed to fit comfortably, to not hamper speech, to not impair breathing, and to offer superior protection. Since studies have linked almost a third of dental injuries to sports-related activities, a mouth guard is an important piece of sports gear that should be chosen carefully. If you have children participating in sports, call our office to make an appointment to protect their teeth and their smile for the future with a small investment in a mouth guard today!
