"Brand New" Mouthwear for Athletes!

We've always understood the importance of athletic mouthguards in protecting teeth and gums from sports-related dental injuries, but now we are excited to offer our patients the revolutionary, performance-enhancing technology of Under Armour Mouthwear!

Performance mouthwear by Under Armour is a new category of sports gear that has been scientifically proven to give athletes in any sport – from football to track to golf - a competitive edge. By “unclenching” the jaw, an athlete can prevent the release of performance-sapping hormones (like cortisol) and “unleash” their full potential. To learn more about the technology and benefits of Under Armour Mouthwear, visit: <https://www.pattersondental.com/UnderArmour/>.
